Exciting Rumors from Rebel Sources.

Everything looks as though the enemy was about ready to commence an attack. Persons acquainted with the country bordering on the Yanoo Pass and the Coldwater River say if the enemy succeed in getting their gunboats into the Coldwater, they will never get out, and an army of 1,000 men could hold at bay and destroy an invading force 130,000.

court martial expelling him from the department—being merely a concession to Gen.
Rherman's funeral friends, will be promptly

The Judiclary bill was thus forced through—making four new judgeships to be filled, it is hoped, by four good Republicans, and kicking Wickliffe's diskyal son-in-law from he Federal treasury at which he has been utiling so long.

Now there are three sependent lines of railroad from New York, all heavily equiparties above all things to see the rebels victorious, and the Union dissolved, and the grater communication by the larter communication by the larter communication by the larter constraints to our arms. The more so, in assuch as they have an account themselves to settle with the rebels, and the conscious ness of their various, and the conscious ness of their wrongs, and the conscious ness of their wrongs of their wr Copperhead affects to doubt their courage; the rebell fear it with instinctive dread; otherwise there is not a negro capable of bearing arms in any part of rebell-dom who would not be forced into their dom who would not be forced into their army. Already they employ them as far as they dare trust them; and surely we who trust them altogether, may put them to any service that beseems them, without compromising our heraldry, or fearing for our throats at midright.

All this hubbub about the millthroats at midnight.

All this hubbub about the military employment of the negro is got up for the base and traitorous purpose of embarrassing the Administration, as well as giving a side stab to the Union. If we make side stab to the Union. If we make to the stab is they may be useful to the Republic and bear their share in the fight to sustain it. Copperhead knows this quite as well as we do, and like the devils of old, he believes it, and trembles. Good for him that we do not own the devils place; for old surety he has forfelted all right to protection and immunity under this Government, upon this continent, or the veracious planet fiself.

Copperhead knows also, that we have no more codish sanction of our black enlistments, but a right imperial one, and that the Emperor of all the French himself has backed our enterprise! He has transported a regiment of negroes from Egypt to help his designs in Mexico, and with this fact before him Copperhead will surely put his hands upon his windy parts, and squeich the walls thereof that he may help to the stable of the process arise they have been adjudged to military service by the highest authority in the land. It treason I. And he is doubly an enemy to the Government, and a hater of the people with littary his voice against of the continuous c

In their hatred of the black they would spare him every atom of the fell, pain, wounds and hardships which they gladly put uponthe shoulders often white tities, thinking that death on the battle field, in the trenches, or at the pickets, is far too great an honer for my man to obten who is not bound by an indubitable Omphalos to the white Eve of Eden.

The white man must do all the dilch work, and hard work of any and every sort, as well as the fighting, and taste of the last bitterness which death brings in his dreadful hand, because the negro is too black to help him!

The Copperhead logic, however, exis itself up, and destroys its own premises. The black man is costly and plenty good enough. Therefore Copperhead would make his coeffiness cheaper than the black man's cheapposes, by hurling him even against armies in position or any other is evitable alsughter, whilst Sambo stood by scatheless, grinning white laughter through all his visible lvories.

The Minnesota ist having borne the flag proudly on many a bloody battle-field, deservedly a favorite regiment with the public, is just now the subject of favorable official consideration. The Governor, in accordance with resolution adopted by both branches of the Legislature, has addressed a letter to the Secretary of War, asking in behalf of the regiment a furlough of four to air months, to easible the members to visit their homes, arrange their business, and recruit their diminished ranks, now reduced to less than 300 effective men. Treasurer Ful-three meetings, which, upon motion were approved.

Mr. Ward, of the Committee on Buildings and Grounds, reported that he had been called upon by Mr. Waren, a centrastor for a block of buildings on the corner of State and Madison streets, and informed that he had 2,400 yards of filling, which he would let the Committee have for filling the Dearborn School lot, at 16 cents per yard. If it cost less than that to remove it, dc., the Committee should have the benefit. Mr. Ward thought it best to take sufficient quantity to fill up to the brick work of the building. The building lot from which the filling will be excavated, is separated from the school lot only by an aliey.

Dr. Foster moved that the Committee on Buildings and Grounds be authorised to contract for an amount not to exceed 3,000 yards, Carried. ler informs us that there are very few genuine seven-ride tickets now out, and that large numbers of counterfeits are every day offered upon the cars and refused by the conductors. numbers of counterfelts are every day offered upon the cars and refused by the conductors.

Taxasis Proparty in Coor County.—The total valuation of real estate in Cook pounty, as per the assessment books of 1863, is $56, 661,663. S. 100 PHILADELPHIA DRY GOODS MARKET.

(From the North American).

The dry goods trade has been moderately active this week; southiry buyers are beginning to come in more freely, and most of the large westers cities are well represented here at present. There is a good de name for all staple cottoms, and for most it had the stocks keep well sold up and holders arm. The only noticeable feature in the trade carried.

Mr. Steele, of the Committee on Text

According to the rules, it must lay over one month, and he should be in favor to suspend that rule to proceed to vote upon it. In the absence of any Grammar, lessons in parsing will probably continue, referring to the rules of the old Grammar.

The same observed, that at a previous meeting Sherwood's Writing Speller had been laid upon the table. He moved that the question be taken from the table. Carried.

The same moved that the Speller be permitted to be used in the public schools by such scholars as desire to use them. He balleved it would be a favor to teachers, scholars and parents. He was satisfied there was no cheaper mode to carry out the rule that there should be some written lessons in spelling, than to deopt a book of this kind. It had previously been arged that the profit on it was enormous, but he was satisfied that the profit was inconsiderable. In answer to the srgument that it had been istroduced by teachers contrary to rule, he said the book was originally infreduced into the schools by the teachers, upon the supposition that it was morely blank paper—it was not a contravention of the rules.

Mr. Steele's motion was carried by the following vote.

Tran-Mesers. Haven, Frindiville, Wicker.

Mr. Wicker proposed Greene's Grammar for me in the schools.

Mr. Holden proposed Clark's Grammar.

Mr. Wicker of the Committee on Apparatus and Furniture, proposed putting in seats in the Haven School for 600 pupils, at a cost of $200 to $200; the seats to be of see-owd elear tumber, one half loch in thiskness; three castings in such twelve feet, at twenty-five cents per foot. The system was the cheapest and absolutely necessary. Upon motion the proposition was adopted. Ciluch.
